EXPERIENCE THE OTHER SIDE OF GOA

Beyond its iconic sun-drenched beaches and vibrant vibe, another side of Goa is waiting to be uncovered. Nestled within its verdant landscapes you'll find postcard-perfect neighborhoods. As the road winds through canopies of towering trees, and the water mirrors the blue skies, time seems to linger, encouraging you to immerse yourself in its quiet, unhurried embrace. Characterized by lush landscapes, peaceful neighborhoods, historic churches and homes, and verdant farmlands, it's an essence that is unmistakably Goan

Come experience the true susegad life and immerse yourself in the profound joys it brings with CGH Earth Saha's newest experience.

A PORTUGUESE HERITAGE VILLA EXPERIENCE

A 236-year-old heritage mansion nestled in South Goa, Mansão Curtorim is a living testament to history. This private retreat showcases authentic Indo-Portuguese architecture and design, meticulously restored by CGH Earth to preserve its original charm and spirit. Being surrounded by verdant greenery adds to its allure.

Mansão Curtorim is the perfect antidote to the frenetic pace of modern life. It's an idyllic escape that allows you to explore, dream and discover and reacquaint yourself with life's simple pleasures.

REDISCOVER TRANQUILITY AND CREATIVITY

Mansão Curtorim is a haven for creative minds, where its leisurely charm, rich heritage, and cultural essence, set amidst vibrant nature, spark the imagination.

It also makes for a perfect escape for family and friends to come together, share meaningful moments, and create lasting memories.

Relax on the pristine beaches just a short distance away, uncover the past by exploring historic churches and ancestral homes, experience the timeless rhythm of Goan village life, and enjoy birdwatching around the villa and along the serene Zuari River.

GIVING HISTORY A NEW LEASE OF LIFE

A single-storey mansion, Mansão Curtorim spans approximately 7,000 square feet. It includes a charming foyer, a welcoming living room, a dining room with a staircase leading to a mezzanine, six well-appointed bedrooms, a cosy library lounge, and a spacious kitchen. Balconies open to the lush garden, a great place to enjoy some quiet time. A veranda gracefully encircles the house and its spacious courtyard.

A GLIMPSE OF HERITAGE LIVING

At Mansão Curtorim, every room is thoughtfully curated taking care to retain its essence. Each space exudes a distinct charm, featuring vintage ceilings, patterned cement tiles, and carefully restored colonial furniture, all tastefully complemented by Portuguese-inspired fabrics.

The spacious rooms and welcoming sit out areas provide serene views of the garden, harmoniously blending nature's symphony with the beauty of heritage living.

Choose from four distinct room categories, each reflecting the charm of traditional Portuguese architecture with modern comforts.

Curtorim Room

A TASTE OF AUTHENTIC GOA

At Mansão Curtorim, you experience Goa in more ways than one, including its unique and delicious cuisine. Our chef has created a menu that is wholesome and covers both local and western favorites and promises to delight vegetarian and meat lovers alike.

From the enticing aroma of Chorizo Pilaf and Cauliflower Caldine to the rich flavor of Pork Sorpotel and Bharlelim Aimi, every dish is a testament to the region's culinary heritage. Embark on a Goan food trail with local specialties like Bebinca, Sol kadi, Xacuti, Vindaloo and a host of other preparations. Rooted in Indo-Portuguese culinary traditions and enhanced by the distinctive blend of local spices and ingredients that make Goan cuisine unique, each dish tells a story. Be sure to try the fresh catch of the day, a highlight of the destination.

The dining area at Mansão Curtorim is designed to complement the exquisite cuisine, offering comfortable seating for ten or more guests. The elegant décor and furnishings enhance the overall dining experience. The villa features two distinct dining spaces—a classic indoor setting with a long dining table in a double-height room, and a more relaxed outdoor option in a semi-covered area surrounded by lush gardens. Together, they create the perfect ambiance for memorable meals.

ABOUT CURTORIM VILLAGE

Nestled among rolling hills and lush greenery, Curtorim is a tranquil village adorned with verdant paddy fields and swaying coconut palm groves.

A focal point of the village's rich cultural heritage is the historic Church of St. Alex, originally constructed in 1597 and rebuilt in 1647.

Curtorim is also known for its abundant water bodies. Along with the Zuari River, they add to the village's picturesque charm.

THE HIDDEN GEMS AROUND MANSÃO CURTORIM

The villa's idyllic location offers a gateway to the soul of Goa. With lush paddy fields, peaceful village paths, and a rich sense of history, the tranquility of the place is captivating. Explore Chandor's stately heritage homes and the timeless churches of Curtorim, such as the historic St. Alex Church and Rachol's ancient seminary.

The scenic trails at Maina Lake are ideal for walking, cycling, and birdwatching. Just a short drive away, you'll find South Goa's peaceful, uncrowded beaches, perfect for leisurely strolls along the picturesque Zuari River. Here, you can truly unwind, enjoying the cool breeze and the soothing sound of the waves.

FACTSHEET

The mansion is ideally situated just 30 minutes from Madgaon railway station and approximately one hour from Dabolim Airport. It is also conveniently located within a 25-minute drive of some of South Goa's most beautiful and popular beaches, including Colva, Benaulim, and Varca.
